

Year 7 Valentine Competition

Would you like to take part in a very exciting poetry competition?

If so, create a Valentine card (on a hard copy or online). Write a love poem in it (any type, any length).

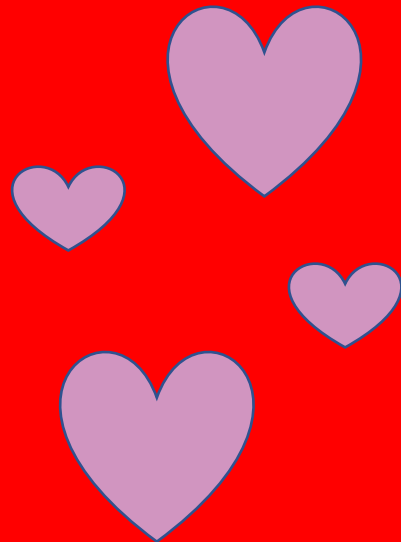

Feel free to add relevant illustrations to your work as it may be displayed in school. And please do not forget to add your name, thank you.

We look forward to receiving your entry. Send your poem online to cvaissieresbrien@perins.hants.sch.uk or post it in the entry box, placed in the new library, by Thursday 10th February 1pm the latest.

The winner will be sent a notification by Monday 14th February! The winning poem will be showcased in the newsletter and across the school on the TV screens. You may even be invited to feature in a video (Art Festival)!

Good luck everyone!

The Library Club

Year 8 Shakespeare Competition

The prologue of your life

As per the Romeo and Juliet's prologue, write the prologue about your own story, your own life, using Shakespearean language.

Romeo and Juliet

Two households, both alike in dignity
(In fair Verona, where we lay our scene),
From ancient grudge break to new mutiny,
Where civil blood makes civil hands unclean.
From forth the fatal loins of these two foes
A pair of star-crossed lovers take their life,
Whose misadventured piteous overthrows
Doth with their death bury their parents' strife.
The fearful passage of their death-marked love
And the continuance of their parents' rage,
Which, but their children's end, naught could remove,
Is now the two hours' traffic of our stage—
The which, if you with patient ears attend,
What here shall miss, our toil shall strive to mend.

The
prologue
of my life?

Feel free to add relevant illustrations to your work as it may be displayed in school. And please do not forget to add your name, thank you.

We look forward to receiving your entry. Send your prologue online to cvaissieresbrien@perins.hants.sch.uk or post it in the entry box, placed in the new library, by Thursday 10th February 1pm the latest.

The winner will be sent a notification by Monday 14th February! The winning prologue will be showcased in the newsletter and across the school on the TV screens. You may even be invited to feature in a video (Art Festival)!

Good luck everyone!

The Library Club

Year 9

Dystopian Short Story Competition

Would you like to take part in a very exciting writing competition?

Write a short story (one A4 min) set in a dystopian world. Send it via email to Mrs Vaissieres-Brien: cvaissieresbrien@perins.hants.sch.uk or post it in the entry box, placed in the new library, by Thursday 10th February 1pm the latest. Feel free to add relevant illustrations to your work as it may be displayed in school. And please do not forget to add your name, thank you.

The winner will be sent a notification by Monday 14th February! The winning story will be showcased in the newsletter and across the school on the TV screens. You may even be invited to feature in a video!

Good luck everyone!

The Library Club

Year 10 Journal Writing Competition

The Persecuted

The Merchant of Venice by Shakespeare

Throughout history, different groups have been persecuted.

Write a journal (one A4 min) from the point of view of someone who has been persecuted. This could be because of one's race, gender, choice of gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disabilities, etc...

Feel free to add relevant illustrations to your work as it may be displayed in school. And please do not forget to add your name, thank you.

We look forward to receiving your entry. Send your journal online to cvaissieresbrien@perins.hants.sch.uk or post it in the entry box, placed in the new library, by Thursday 10th February 1pm the latest.

The winner will be sent a notification by Monday 14th February! The winning journal will be showcased in the newsletter and across the school on the TV screens. You may even be invited to feature in a video (Art Festival)!

Good luck everyone!

The Library Club

Year 11 Creative Writing Competition

60 years forward...

You are required to write a letter (one A4 min) to the next generation about your experiences of the 2020-2021 lockdown.

Send your letter via email to Mrs Vaissieres-Brien: cvaissieresbrien@perins.hants.sch.uk or post it in the entry box, placed in the new library, by Thursday 10th February 1pm the latest. Feel free to add relevant illustrations to your work as it may be displayed in school. And please do not forget to add your name, thank you.

The winner will be sent a notification by Monday 14th February! The winning letter will be showcased in the newsletter and across the school on the TV screens. You may even be invited to feature in a video (Art Festival)!

Good luck everyone!

The Library Club

